

Prospective seminar speaker,

The 2009 ICPSC is currently finalizing its' seminar curriculum. We are committed to being the premier educational conference in the concrete polishing and staining industry. This commitment is taken very seriously in the seminar rooms by enlisting the most knowledgeable lecturers who are able to clearly teach factual information. We want attendees to take away both theoretical and field accurate information that can be of great value to their businesses. This years conference will be held from October 1st through the 4th at the beautiful Gwinette Convention Center in Atlanta, Georgia. Thank you in advance for your desire to participate and share your knowledge. To review much more information about the 2009 ICPSC in its' entirety please visit www.icpsc2009.com.

Sincerely yours,
ICPSC Seminar Review Board
